

NAVY MAKES ONE MORE ATTACK

Kearsarge, Indiana, Alabama and Massachusetts Attack Ft. Wright.

LASTED AN HOUR

Other Forts Join in the Battle Very Effectively, Turning the Contest.

ARMY IS NOW AHEAD

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Ft. Trumbull, Conn., Sept. 3.—Four battleships, the Kearsarge, Indiana, Alabama and Massachusetts made a day long attack this morning on Fort Wright for the purpose of reducing it and making the passage clear. The boats sailed up inside of the danger line and poured a hail of shot and shell into the fort.

Put Out of Action. During the action which lasted over an hour the Indiana and Kearsarge were put out of action by Fort Miele, which became engaged in the fight as the boats drifted within their respective range. The headquarters of Col. Davis and the signal station on Prospect Hill were fired and totally destroyed.

Steam Away. After the cannonading the four boats steamed away and joined the rest of the fleet. Thus far the army seems to be having the best of the contest and has scored more points than their adversaries.

EXPLAINS REASON FOR FAIR'S DEATH

Anna Held Offers a Theory as to How the Accident Happened—Had Fits of Coughing.

New York, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Anna Held the actress, and her husband, Florence Ziegfeld, arrived on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, today. While abroad both the actress and her husband were closely associated with Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair, who came to such an untimely death in their automobile. "The accident to the Fairs spoiled our whole vacation," said Miss Held. "On the day before the accident Mr. Ziegfeld and I were in Mr. Fair's Mercedes machine the same in which he met his death, and we had a very pleasant ride. We were also invited to go on the trip the next day, but we probably saved our lives by not going."

Mr. Ziegfeld, when asked what he thought was the cause of the accident said: "I am sure that it was due to one of Mr. Fair's coughing fits. He had a bad asthmatic cough, and when the fit took him he seemed to lose all sensibility of what was going on around him."

One Narrow Escape. "One day about a week before the accident Miss Held and I were out riding in the machine. Mr. and Mrs. Fair were along. We had reached a long level stretch in the road, when suddenly Mr. Fair began to cough. Before I knew it he let go of the steering wheel of the automobile and it began to careen wildly from one side of the road to the other. Just as it was making for a ditch on the right hand side of the road, I seized the wheel and gave it a twist. Not being used to running a machine, I found that I had turned the wheel too hard. The automobile then made for the ditch on the left hand side of the road, but I managed to control it in time to prevent our being overturned. When we arrived home I warned Mrs. Fair that her husband should not be allowed to steer the machine until he could rid himself of his cough."

Miss Held said that she would open in Washington in "The Little Duchess" on October 1.

OIL MAY BREAK COAL MONOPOLY

Texas Product Might Compete with the Pennsylvania Anthracite.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Oil may prove the means of breaking the coal monopoly in the anthracite region. A paper is now in the course of preparation by Charles Willard Hayes of the geological survey, showing the possibility of oil from the Texas field coming into competition with the coal of Pennsylvania for all fuel purposes. It will give the relative fuel value of the Texas oil and various kinds of coal especially the hard coal of Pennsylvania. This will be the first authentic publication of the government treating this subject at great length. It is believed that it will be instrumental in guiding consumers of coal towards methods for supplanting the use of that fuel with oil, especially during times when high prices are demanded for coal.

STEAMER GOES DOWN IN LUDINGTON HARBOR

Waterlogged Vessel Had Nearly Reached a Landing Place When She Sunk.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 3.—After one of the most exciting races against time ever run on Lake Michigan, the steamer Hattie L. Perene lies sunk at the entrance to Ludington harbor, with her deckload of lumber gone, while a high southwest sea beats over her. The steamer had almost reached safety when it went to the bottom, a tug having answered its calls for assistance and towed it almost into the harbor.

The Perene's trouble came off Big Point Au Sable. Late in the night the steamer began leaking fast and soon became waterlogged. Capt. John Kemming kept the boat's pumps working steadily and headed for this port, blowing whistles of distress as he approached.

Off Ludington the steamer's decks became covered and the fires were extinguished, but there was hopes of reaching port safely, as the tug had taken its line and was working hard to get it into port. The boat is owned by C. J. Marsh of Chicago, and Capt. Kemming and the fourteen members of the crew are Chicagoans. All are safe.

M. G. JEFFRIS TO HAVE FINE HOUSE

Architects Have Drawn Elaborate Plans for a Colonial House Beautifully Finished.

In a few days work will be begun on a residence which the architects say will be the finest in the city. The plans have been drawn by Rawson & Pannack for M. G. Jeffris, and the house will be erected at the corner of Second and Wisconsin streets. The building will be practically four stories of colonial style, with a Bedford stone foundation. A Flemish bond brick of alternating light stretcher and dark header will be used. Just what the brick will be has not yet been decided. The building will be crowned with a tile roof.

Elaborate in Detail. Mr. Jeffris is to be congratulated upon his choice of architects, and the architects themselves upon the designs which they have drawn up. Every detail has been worked out with the greatest care to make this residence unsurpassed among the residences of the Bower City. The woodwork of the building will be of birch with quarter sawed oak floors. Especial pains has been lavished upon the dining hall which is of quarter sawed oak throughout, with a wainscoting of the same wood running up to within a few inches of the beam ceiling. On the third floor a large part of the space will be devoted to a ball room which will also be finished with wainscoting and beam ceiling.

CARDINAL GIBBONS HAS SERIOUS ILLMENT

Suffers From Kidney and Bladder Disease and Operation May Be Necessary.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 3.—It is reported that Cardinal Gibbons is seriously ill. His physician, Dr. Donovan, who is at Atlantic City, has been summoned by telegraph. When his emittance went into retreat last week he was taken with severe pains, and was supposed to be suffering from lumbago. Local treatment for this ailment, however, failed to bring the desired relief, and the aid of an expert in kidney and bladder trouble was enlisted. It was then ascertained that the cardinal was suffering from calculus, the passage of a stone from the kidneys to the bladder, and it all depends now upon the size of the obstruction whether an operation will be necessary or not.

NINETEEN VICTIMS WILL RECOVER

Long Island Desperado Played Havoc with the Police and Others.

New York, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Of the nineteen persons hit by shot from Jeremiah Hunter's gun on the Thomas estate on Bowers Bay on Monday, all but three suffered such slight wounds that they were able to go to their homes when their wounds had been dressed. Policeman John McKenna was alive tonight and the doctors at St. Johns hospital, Long Island City, said that he had a chance of recovery. The sight of both eyes is destroyed and his face is mutilated by shot.

Body Injured. Policeman Arthur Bell will lose his right eye. His left eye is affected, but the doctors believe that it can be saved. The third man, who is still in the hospital, is Policeman Matthew J. Ward, who got a charge of shot in his right leg. Hunter spent the night in the Astoria police station. He was a sorry sight when brought into the daylight today in Long Island City, where Magistrate Smith was holding court.

A bullet fired by one of the policemen had carried away his right eye. His head was swathed in bandages so that only the left eye was visible. His right hand, which had been penetrated by a bullet, hung limp by his side. Blood oozing from his wounds had incriminated his body.

An Indian. Hunter says that he is a half-breed Shinnecock Indian. The court held him without bail and postponed the case until September 10. The ruins of the house from which Hunter had fought off his besiegers for six hours were visited today by hundreds of people, who carried away the empty shells which he had used in his gun and picked the lead out of the tree trunks with their knives. Only a part of the walls were standing. The fire which drove Hunter and his wife from the house was started undoubtedly by the breaking of a lamp. It was stated that the police made no attempt to set fire to the place.

IN THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW

Philo Loudon Tuesday morning there died at the county hospital one of the best known of the earlier residents of Janesville. He came to Wisconsin in 1846 and has since that date been one of the commonly seen characters of the city.

A week ago next Thursday Mr. Loudon was found in a disabled condition in his room and after a consultation it was decided to send him to the county hospital for care. He grew rapidly worse and the end came this morning.

For the last twenty years he had been engaged in no active business. Previous to that time he worked as a furniture finisher for Puffer & Church, who were then operating a furniture factory near where Ashcraft is now in business. When a boy he had some paralytic trouble which left him slightly lame throughout his life. He was born June 4, 1828.

His immediate relatives who are left to mourn his decease are two brothers in this city, Mayhew and James, and a sister, Mrs. Chapman, in Denver. He was unmarried.

The funeral will be held from the home of Mayhew Loudon at 55 North High street on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will be at Oak Hill. The services will be in charge of the Church of Christ, Scientist.

MUTUAL SAVING BANK'S RECORD

SERENO T. MERRILL EXPLAINS ITS GREAT BENEFITS.

THE BELOIT BANK IS A MODEL

May Establish a Similar Institution in This City in the Near Future.

Mr. S. T. Merrill of Beloit has contributed the following article on Mutual Saving banks for the readers of the Gazette to study over. Mr. Merrill is enthusiastic over this subject and the experiment he started in Beloit was so successful that he hopes to be able to induce Janesville men of prominence that it is just the thing they need here. In fact he has gone so far as to spend several days here talking the subject over with prominent bankers and merchants and has secured encouragement in his pet project.

At the recent annual meeting of the Savings Banks association of the state of New York President Andrew Mills mentioned the fact that in the past calendar year the deposits in the savings banks of the state of New York had increased $67,000,000, the total now being $1,014,000,000; and the number of depositors is 2,174,511, or about one in three and one-half of the entire population of the state. He said that the depositors in the savings banks of the state of New York could pay the national debt and have $200,000,000.

New York Banks
S. D. Kilbourn, superintendent of banks, in his report Feb. 27, 1900, says: "The resources of all the savings banks have passed the billion dollar point and aggregate $1,000,000,000. * * * The savings bank system of New York stands a splendid monument to the legislative wisdom of the state which made its several institutions in powers and privileges and endowed them with exceptions designed to promote frugality and thrift on the part of the poorer and moderately well-to-do people. It may reasonably be doubted if any other single agency has accomplished more to cultivate individual independence and therefore good citizenship and keep down public charges on account of pauperism."

The Savings
There are 129 mutual savings banks in the state of New York with deposits ranging from a few thousands to many millions of dollars. The Seaman's established 1810, has deposits and individual earnings amounting to $71,200,000, and open accounts numbering 140,072. The Bowers Savings bank, organized 1834, has assets amounting to $50,730,000, and 124,619 depositors. The former is the oldest in the state, the latter the largest savings bank in the world. The 186 mutual savings banks in Massachusetts have assets amounting to $77,237,239—enough to give every man, woman and child in the state $204.61.

Report To Congress
The comptroller of currency in his report to congress, January, 1901, says of the banks of the country: "Six hundred and fifty-five are mutual savings banks, being institutions without capital stock operated by trustees for the exclusive benefit of the depositors, and 257 stock savings banks, managed by the stock holders. All the mutual banks except eleven—four in Ohio, five in Indiana and one each in West Virginia and Wisconsin—are all located in New York and the eastern states."

It's Beginning
The beginning of the great system of mutual savings banks dates back to 1816, when a few benevolent individuals secured a charter for the Provident Institutions for Savings in the Town of Boston, a title which it still retains. It had Jan. 1, 1900, deposits and earnings amounting to $41,104,472, belonging to 95,354 depositors. This bank is not only much the largest savings bank in the state, but the oldest in this or in any other country in the world.

In History
Keyes, in his "History of Savings Banks" (1876, Vol. II, p. 535), says: "Prior to 1874 the mutual savings banks in this country enjoyed a wonderful immunity from misfortune. * * * When we consider that the sum of less than $75,000 represents the entire loss to depositors in Massachusetts savings banks from 1816 to 1874, a period of sixty years, out of what must have been during that time an aggregate fund committed to these institutions of probably $750,000. We must conclude the system of mutual savings banks in that state, so far from being in any sense a failure, has proved itself to be more free from defects in its plain, more exempt from folly weakness and agreed in its administration than we would have any reason to predict that any human interest of such magnitude would prove to be. The entire loss in that sixty years did not exceed the tenth part of a mill on each dollar deposited!"

Failures
The sad experience of the people of Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan caused by the failure of so-called savings banks cannot be laid at the door of mutual savings banks, for with one exception no institution of this kind has ever been established in either of those states. The lone savings bank in Wisconsin alluded to above by the comptroller of the currency is the Beloit Savings Bank, organized March 21, 1881, without a dollar of capital, and cradled for the first year of its existence in a justice's office, being opened one hour a day, rent and services of treasurer free. After several removals it is now settled in its own fine bank building, with modern fixtures for the safety of deposits which now amount to $500,000, belonging to 4000 depositors, more than half of whom are women and children.

It has kept thousands of dollars out of the saloons and helped many to secure comfortable homes. Two evenings each week—Wednesdays and Saturdays—it is kept open to accommodate employees in the shops.

Has Trustees
This, like all other mutual banks, is managed by trustees, men who have no selfish stake in the matters, being precluded by law from sharing directly or indirectly in the gain or profits of the bank, and also from receiving any pay or emolument for their services. The expenses for transacting the business of this bank for 1901, were less than one-third of a cent for each dollar of its deposits. The laws governing mutual savings banks authorize a treasurer, directed by the finance committee to postpone the payment of certain accounts, according to amounts, thirty, sixty or ninety days. The provision is put in practice only in case of panic or run on the bank. Another safeguard is refusal to accept large deposits, and to pay dividends on any account exceeding a certain amount, fixed by the trustees. Massachusetts has fixed the limit at $1,000, New York at $3,000.

MANAGER MYERS IS WRATHY

Resents the Recent Attack by Ministers Upon His Theatre and His Shows.

Manager Myers of the Myers Grand Opera House has stated himself as indignant at the utterances of Rev. Tippetts in his address at the Court Street Methodist church last Sunday morning. He does not believe the remarks which that clergyman made regarding the theater to be just or founded upon fact. On the contrary, he takes the words of Rev. Tippetts as a direct and unjustifiable attack upon the theater as it exists in this city.

What He Says.

"I certainly take exception," said Mr. Myers, "to the remarks which Rev. Tippetts made in regard to the attractions which have been brought to Janesville. I have endeavored at all times to bring the leading and the best dramas to the city. Many of them leave impressions with the public which are as lasting and do as great good as many sermons."

Gives Wrong Impression.

"It should be plainly expressed to the public that the stage as it is in Janesville is not so 'miserable and rotten' as Mr. Tippetts would have the public believe. Many of the actresses are the leading young ladies from the best homes in the country. Witness the number of Madison young ladies who have gone upon the stage in the last few years. Look in the Ladies' Home Journal and see the stress that has been laid upon theatricals among the young ladies of Wellesley, Mount Holyoke, and Vassar. The stage is not what it was years ago, but is vastly better."

Challenges Investigation.
"I would be glad to have any one go over the lists which are given in the leading dramatic newspapers of the country and compare the attractions booked here with those in any city less than 50,000. And I wish to recall the fact that this city is less than half that size. Of course in catering to all classes I am obliged to book some attractions which I would prefer not to."

City Examples.
"I have this season Otis Skinner in Lazzare at a guarantee of $800, as the contract will show. Then performance will be absolutely unsurpassed, not even in his own play of Francesca da Rimini last year. And if Mr. Tippetts can show me a more refined and polished gentleman than Otis Skinner, and a more cultured lady than his wife, I would be glad to have him point them out."

IS NOW A FULL FLEDGED LAWYER

Bernard Palmer Passes the State Bar Examination at Madison.

Bernard Palmer, son of W. F. Palmer of the Parker Pen Co. was one of the successful candidates at the state law examination held at Madison last week. There were a large number of candidates but only fourteen passed. Mr. Palmer is a graduate of the state university and has also read law in the office of Jackson & Jackson. He is a young man who has a bright future before him.

Rocky Mountain Tea taken now will keep the whole family well. If it fails, bring it back and get your cash. 35 cts. Smith's Pharmacy.

THAT CIRCUS.

No less than twenty-three bareback champions of the entire world are with the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers consolidated shows this year. As a matter of fact there are no other riders worthy of the name in this country. These shows in a measure are playing the dog-in-the-manger policy toward the other shows in regard to riders. One-third of the number they have would be more than any other show has ever had before, but they will simply will not let the other shows have any one of these champion riders. It certainly makes these shows the most astounding exhibition of equestrianism the world has ever seen without indulging in any of the ordinary circus aggression. The most deliciously absurd burlesque ever seen in the circus ring is that of Frank Oakley with the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows. United Oakley besides being a clown of rare humor, is an expert rider, and he gives a burlesque of the riding by the "Queen of the Arena" that is simply side-splitting in its fun. He is one of the army of star fools with these great shows, who make of life a jest and of the blues a memory. They will all be seen at both the afternoon and evening performances of these shows, when they exhibit here tomorrow.

PLANS FOR WINTER Y. M. C. A. WORK

REGULAR CLASSES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 22 FOR SEASON.

ALL EQUIPMENTS RENEWED

Three Classes Are Planned for Gymnasium Work, and Tournaments Arranged.

Within a few days Athletic Director W. E. Mack of the Y. M. C. A. will have his winter schedule of gymnasium classes ready for publication. The details of the work which will be done have not yet been completely worked out, but the general lines that will be followed have been practically decided upon.

Four Departments.

Gymnasium work will be done under four main heads. Those boys under fourteen years of age will be assigned to the Junior class, those over fourteen and under seventeen to the Intermediate department, and those over seventeen will be classed as Seniors. It is expected that there will be many who from their age would naturally come in the last category who have not for some time been actively engaged in athletic work. For their benefit a separate class will be organized to be known as the business men's class, in which those who do not care to enter upon a severe course of training will have a suitable opportunity for exercise.

Apparatus Improved.

During the past week all the gymnasium apparatus has undergone a complete renovation. The bowling alley has been closed for some weeks in order that it may be placed in the best of condition. The handball courts in the auditorium have been re-marked and are ready for use immediately. In fact for several days past the sound of bouncing balls has been heard every evening in the room devoted to that sport.

Certain pieces of apparatus which were injured during last season have been thoroughly repaired, and the damaged parts replaced by new. In point of equipment the Y. M. C. A. will be thoroughly prepared for all needed work.

Tournaments.

During the winter, tournaments will be conducted on both the hand ball courts and the bowling alley, and some closely fought contests are looked for. In addition to these games, basket ball and indoor base ball will be cultivated as giving more recreation than the work drill with apparatus, and allowing the mind more scope for thought while playing.

Director Mack believes one great fault in high school athletics is that few of the men train save in the seasons of their respective events. His theory is that the man should be in condition the year around. A special effort will be made to bring a large number of the high school athletes into the classes for this reason. There will be stiff enough drill provided to suit the strongest.

Begin Soon.

On September 28th the Junior and Intermediate classes will begin their gymnastic and calisthenic classes, and the complete schedule for the winter will go into force on the 22d. From this date the business men's and senior classes will also be conducted.

In all of the classes it will be especially urged upon the members that they be on hand to begin promptly. In order that those who desire to take part in some of the games after the regular hour of apparatus work may have time, and that the business men who have other engagements may be free to go. The hours of the classes will be from 5:00 to 6:00 o'clock, and from 7:30 to 8:30.

SUMMER CONCERTS ARE FINISHED

The Imperial Band Gave Its Last One Tuesday Evening in the Park.

Despite the chilling influence of the evident approach of fall as indicated by the temperature, the band concert Tuesday night was voted a success by the many who were present during part or all of the programme. It was noticeable that fewer than usual were seated upon the grass, but none of those who were in the Court House park where the concert was given, showed any desire to leave before the last chord of the last number. But it is doubtful whether many of those who enjoyed this concert the last of the summer and the nine others that have been given, have thought to direct their thanks to those who by their contributions made the series possible.

The Programme.

Overture, Salutation, . . . A. W. Knoff
Waltzes, Rhapsody, Furst
Hearts and Flowers, Tobani
Indian War Dance, Bellest
Serenade, Cupid's Chorus, . . . Miller
Medley, Way Down in Indiana, . . .
March, Battle of the Clouds, . . . Knoff

OLD ARKANSAW.

"Old Arkansaw" is the title of Fred Raymond's newest play, which will be seen at the Myers Grand Wednesday Sept. 3. The piece is now in its third season and has been a success right from the start. The reports from the cities so far visited this season are that both play and players are creating an unusual sensation. The business has been enormous, a great part of the time standing room has been at a premium. It is said to be the best mounted melodrama ever seen. The scenic effects are realistic and pleasing to the eye.

"Salesmanship is the science of putting into each day's work honesty in speech, loyalty to employer, the hustle of modern civilization, of being on time, of watching your weak points and strengthening them; of not only keeping your customers, but of gaining new ones; of being at all times a gentleman."—Mahlis' Magazine for September.

FACTS FOR FICTION

Nothing much doing nowadays. Certainly not. All of the women's clubs are taking a vacation.

Even on Labor Day the country police captured a score or two of Bartholins. Can't Chief Hogan run down a few?

After a few weeks of the kindly ministrations of Mr. Bullock of Beloit, we will be able to decide that much mooted question: "Is Beloit or We Biggest?"

All that Janesville needs is a long-haired reformer who will start a pure water agitation, so that the children may carry bottles to school with them on the fifteenth.

Janesville should get in line with Chicago in a crusade against the smoke nuisance and squelch the man who burns "niggerhair" in a brier of the vintage of '72.

It is too bad that Yeager & Son promised to begin on the postoffice next week. They should have realized that "next week" is one of those elusive dates which is ever in the future.

Can't some Bower City future president rise up and show Alfonso what it is to be a really bad boy? Still Alfie has brought about some free advertising that would put a theatrical divorce to shame.

Do you remember the man who took twelve shots at the nigger baby during the carnival without hitting one? Then he went to the hotel and wrote his wife how he missed the children. Oh, my!

Janesville laborers are worked so hard that they cannot go to the theater save to Sunday night according to Mr. Myers. Janesville laborers can go to the theater any day in the week, so the clergy say. Strange isn't it? Peculiar indeed!

Sturgeon Bay calls the Morrisler combination which is in that city this week a "stupendous exposition of art, industry, trade, and amusement." Do you recognize it? Holy Moses might have represented industry, and Holligan amusement—because its so different—but where do the rest come in?

Illinois ought to be the next lit-erary state to come before the foot-lights. Already her impromptu neck the performances of Indiana, whose recent swoop into the world of letters was preceded by a thorough course of training under Judge Lynch.

These Colorado aeronauts who start at Denver in a balloon for New York and stopped while in their native state, can now sympathize with Hezore Palmer of Chicago, who started for Boston in an auto and found the going too hard in Ohio. It would be an awful shock if one of these adventurers should do the thing first and talk afterwards.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstad, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 50 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." The same precautions are necessary as in any surgical operation. If the instruments are not just so clean there is a chance of contagion. ROSE IS AHEAD IN WISCONSIN

OPPOSITION LACKS A LEADER

Ex-Governor Peck is a strong candidate. But Those Against Cream City Man Seem to Lack Desire to Get Together.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—Mayor Rose is confident that he will be nominated. He says that even if he does not have a majority on the first ballot he will get enough on a second or third choice to make it a sure thing before many ballots are taken. The other candidates who will come before the Democratic state convention are entirely lost sight of in the absorbing contest for the gubernatorial honors.

The five candidates for governor are all or hand. Four of them have headquarters and ex-Governor Peck ornaments the lobby of the Plankinton like a simple delegate. The candidates for the other offices are keeping open house, too, but with the exception of those known to favor Rose not much attention is paid to them.

Opposition is Strong.
The opposition to Rose is strong and is doing hard work. If the components could combine their forces they probably would have Rose beaten, but they lack a leader. In a conference they counted on the votes they think they can depend on and there are enough of them to defeat Rose if they only can act together. But none of them is willing to say that they will go to Peck, although the ex-governor evidently is the strong hope of the opposition. Yet if Rose is beaten by anybody it will be by Peck.

Lean to Peck.
The work being done by the avowed enemies of Rose has borne some fruit. Some of the most careful observers, who are not mixing in the fight at all, say that former Governor Peck finally will be the choice of the convention. He may be, but it is hard to convince one who watches Rose and his strong forces and sees the work they are doing that Milwaukee's mayor can be beaten.

Joseph E. Davies of Watertown has been chosen by Chairman Warden of the state central committee as temporary chairman of the convention.

Appeal to Women.
For the first time in the history of Wisconsin politics, an appeal is to be made to the women of the state to rally to the support of a political platform. Unless present plans miscarry the democracy of Wisconsin in convention assembled will be called upon to make a radical departure in calling for the suffrages of the people of the state by appealing to the women to support the plank relating to the state superintendent of instruction. The platform will condemn in strong measures the pernicious activity of bookmen in securing the nomination of candidates for that position and will urge a constitutional amendment whereby the selection of the state superintendent of schools will be eliminated from politics altogether.

FINDS GOOD CHICKEN SHOOTING

Young Roosevelt is Enjoying His Outing in the West.

Huron, S. D., Sept. 2.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., with Marvin Huggitt, Jr., and a party of Chicago and Northwestern Railway officials, under the supervision of Third Vice President H. R. McCullough of the Northwestern company, spent the day shooting prairie chickens in fields eight miles northwest of Arlington. Their success was not as marked as the day before, when more than 100 birds were bagged by the company, young Roosevelt getting seventeen and young Huggitt fifteen.

GO TO CEMETERY TO END LIFE

Frankfort, O., Couple Found Dead in Silent City.

Xenia, O., Sept. 3.—C. A. Brown and wife of Frankfort, O., were found dead in the cemetery at Jamestown, the man shot through the temple, the woman in the mouth. They came to town on an excursion train Sunday morning and had stopped at a hotel Monday evening, when they paid their bill. They went to the cemetery and nothing more was seen of them until they were found lying side by side near the cemetery vault by a laborer. A single revolver lay between them, and whether it was a double suicide or not is unknown, though the indications point to suicide, as under the head of each was a blood-stained newspaper.

A posse was organized which chased him all day and finally as it was growing dark was forced to kill him, all efforts of capture having proved a failure.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 3.—Peter Mortensen, the condemned slayer of James R. Hay, was sentenced to death. The date of execution was fixed at Oct. 17. The laws of Utah give condemned murderers the privilege of choosing between shooting and hanging, and Mortensen, when confronted with this grim choice elected to be shot. Mortensen was deeply affected and protested his innocence.

SAVES A GIRL FROM DROWNING

EXPLAINS ROUGH STONE ASPECT

WILL BE NICELY HEWN DOWN AT A LATER DATE.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY PROGRESS

Contractor Says the Building is the Finest He Has Yet Worked Upon.

Surprise has been expressed by some that so rough a piece of work should be allowed on the Carnegie library as the two panels which have recently been put in place. They are placed one on each side of the door just beneath the windows of the second floor. Both are of stone, comparatively roughly hewed, with several very apparent irregularities. As a result many have commented upon it thinking it strange that work so out of place should be introduced on the beautiful building.

Beautifully Carved.
The explanation is that the chiseling of these panels will be done while the stones are in place. It has not yet been decided who will do the work, but some expert stone cutter will be engaged to carve the panels. A design of symbolic emblems, books, scrolls and the other devices which are commonly seen on the exterior of such a building will be tooled in the stone.

Difficulty Met With.
Thomas Winchester, who has the cut stone work in charge points with pride to the two circles of stone which form the center pieces of each panel. Two weeks ago those blocks of stone were in the bottom of the Bedford quarry, and the men were all on a strike. Through Mr. Winchester's efforts a sufficient number of men were secured to quarry the stone for this building, and for another which he is constructing in Rockford. He says that this is the third Carnegie library on which he has had the contract for the stone work, and that it is far the finest.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

W. R. C. Meeting: A regular meeting of the W. R. C. will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Relief Association: The firemen's relief association held its regular monthly meeting last evening and disposed of all current business.

Meet Friday: Members of the America Rebekah social club are requested to meet with Mrs. F. P. Starr, 353 Court Street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Back For Duty: Driver Wm. Scott of the fire department is again back on duty and Peter Champion will now take a two weeks' lay off.

New Fire Escape: A fire escape has been erected on the south end of the high school building and will be a great help in case of fire.

King's Daughters: The King's Daughters of the Baptist church will hold their regular meeting in the church at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

In Receiver's Hands: The shoe factory at Rochester, Ind., which Gibson E. Newman tried to locate in Janesville has passed into the hands of a receiver. The insolvency of the concern far exceeded what Mr. Newman claimed.

Canning Department Starts: The canning department of the P. Hohenadel, Jr., Co. started up Monday and is now running full force. The quality of the corn received so far is very satisfactory.

Who Is He? A gentleman connected with the passenger department of one of the large railroads was asked how business had been this summer. He replied that he had been a regular "candy casker," he worked while others slept.

Knows the Rascal: Chief Spencer is well satisfied that he knows who turned in the fire alarm from box 18 Saturday night and before long some prominent parties may be given a chance to explain it to Judge Fife.

In Court: In the municipal court Tuesday morning the case of the state of Wisconsin vs. Jacobson et al. was dismissed for lack of prosecution. The complaining witness was A. Benes, the junk dealer who had them arrested for assault.

Get Contract: The contract for furnishing eight hundred tons of soft coal at the county house was yesterday morning awarded to the Badger Coal Company. Their bid was $2.55 a ton delivered on the county house side track.

Pleasant Party: Mrs. W. B. Conrad and Miss Barker were the hostesses this afternoon at a euchre party at the home of Mrs. Conrad. Six-handed euchre formed the principal amusement for the afternoon. Choice refreshments were served to the guests at the finish of the card games.

Troublesome Switch: The street railway company are having all sorts of trouble with the switch at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets. It is getting to be a common occurrence to have a car off the track at this point and considerable valuable time is lost each day in getting the cars back onto the track.

Woman's Missionary: The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will hold their annual business meeting Friday, Sept. 5 at half past two o'clock in the church parlors. The Mite boxes will be opened at this time. After the business meeting a good program has been prepared. Let every member of the society be present at this, the last meeting of the year.

Is Slow Work: The subscription committee for the Hough Porch Sande company, started out on an active campaign this morning. On account of Monday being Labor Day no work has been done by the committee since last week. The list has now reached a pretty fair size and the committee are confident that they will be able to get the required amount and will get the factory located here. They say that on account of so many things that have required subscriptions having been brought here this summer, they find it slow work raising the money, but that the people have responded cheerfully and they expect to get what they require.

A Bad Mistake: Through a slight miscalculation, a case which was fled during carnival week in the justice court of C. W. Reeder will have to be re-opened from the beginning. Suit was brought by Merrill W. Wright, an employee of the Morris-Herger combination for money owed him by Morris. In order to secure the money the First National Bank was brought into the matter as garnishee. Unfortunately the adjournment for a hearing was placed by the attorneys for September 1st. As that happened to be labor day, on which no legal business could be done in the court, the case immediately became null and void, and if it is brought up again the papers will have to be refiled and served a second time.

Justice Court: Judgment was given by Justice Earle for P. A. Taylor yesterday for $32.75 to be recovered of John Oakley. The case of George C. McLean against James Scott, William Hadden and Thomas Mount was dismissed on the ground that the justice had no jurisdiction in the matter. The case of Benesch Brothers against A. Benes was adjourned without pleadings to September ninth.

Marriage Licenses: Marriage licenses were issued today to J. A. Johnson and Hope Allen, both of Beloit; Claude E. Latta of Clinton and Susie A. Schwartz, of Turtle.

To Surpass Records.
The contests which will be held are the same as those which were held in New York in July for the amateur championship of the country. The system of marking used will be the same, and after his experience in the East the big Beloit man believes that he can score a number of points which will equal the achievement of Harry Gill. Gill, who has been Merrill's coach during the past year, in 1900 made a record of 6,369½ points which has never been surpassed.

Other Athletes.
Merrill's most formidable rivals who are at present on the ground are F. Saradakis, a Greek athlete of Milwaukee, and Frank Reynolds, the all-around champion of Marquette college. Prominent sporting men are ungrudging as to Merrill's chances. They do not believe that he is in the shape that he was earlier in the year when he was in active work. In the interim they believe that he has taken on fat, and is out of form in the events which require constant practice. His supporters say that he is a man who is never out of condition, and that in the time that remains he can train himself to come up on the 13th ready to beat anyone in the country.

His Last Event.
Whatever the outcome may be, the contest will be watched with the greatest of interest, as it will probably be his last appearance under an amateur status. At the opening of Lawrence University he will take up his duties with that institution as an instructor, and as a coach of the football team.

NO MORE SUNDAY NIGHT SHOWS

Manager Myers Cancels All the Attractions Falling on Those Dates.

Manager P. L. Myers has decided to hold no more Sunday night shows at the opera house and has cancelled the attractions booked for dates falling on Sundays. This action was reached this morning after Mr. Myers had talked with several prominent citizens and found that the general sentiment did not favor such a move. In speaking of the affair Mr. Myers said:

Statement.
"I do not want to antagonize any of the Janesville citizens by the holding of Sunday night performances, if they do not want them. My idea in doing so was to give the workingman, who is employed all the week an opportunity to visit the theater on Sunday if he wished. It had been tried successfully elsewhere and had met the popular demand. Since Janesville is not ready for such an innovation I shall have none. I have cancelled all of the attractions billed for dates falling on Sunday nights."

Good Shows.
The list of attractions for this year's schedule promises well for theater lovers and some of the best productions in the country are billed to appear here.

ASK FOR BETTER SLEEPING ROOMS

The West Side Fire Boys Anxious for City Clerk's Office, to Sleep In.

The members of the West Side fire department are anxious to get the Clerk and Treasurer's offices in the old building for sleeping rooms. They are now quartered in the council chambers which are very inconvenient in case of a night alarm. When they get into the front rooms a hole will be cut in the floor of the present city clerk's office and a sliding pole put in, so that no time will be lost in getting down stairs.

Can't Move Yet.
Treasurer Fathers and Clerk Badger say that they cannot move into their new quarters until the offices are completed and the records moved. They have a storage room full of papers and books that will have to be taken out and put in the new quarters before the fire department can occupy the offices.

Ross-Ray.
Willis Ray of Launk, Ill., and Mrs. Charlotte E. Ross of this city were quietly married yesterday afternoon by Justice Jesse Earle. The couple secured a special permit from Judge Sale, allowing them to wed without waiting the five days required by law. They are both past the middle age and the bride has many friends in this city who will extend congratulations.

BARBERS HAVE A DISPUTED POINT

CLAIM ONE BOSS VIOLATED LABOR DAY AGREEMENT.

SAY HE OPENED HIS SHOP

The Man Who Was Shaved Was Morgan, the Speaker of the Day.

The boss barbers of the city are considerably stirred up over the action of a leading union barber on North Main street, opening his shop on Labor Day after being the one, to most loudly advocate closing the entire day.

At a meeting of the barbers held a short time before Labor day the gentleman in question who is a leading union organizer, and the first one to report any infringement on their rules, addressed the meeting. Several of the boss barbers wished to keep open part of the day, but this barber made such a strong talk against it that they all agreed to close and not do any business.

Are Surprised.
They were much surprised when one of the leading boss barbers of the city reported that he found this man's shop open and him shaving a man about 10:30 a. m.

Was T. J. Morgan.
The barber claimed that the man he was shaving was T. J. Morgan, the speaker of the day at their celebration, who had to be shaved. Other barbers say that Mr. Morgan applied to them to get shaved and they refused him. They could see no reason why they should refuse to shave a number of their best customers and then open up their shop for Mr. Morgan.

Is Taken Up.
The matter is being taken up by the barbers and complaints to the different unions in the city will be presented at the next meeting of the Trades Council.

THAT NEW DIRECTORY

If you Are Not Down Send Your Name in at Once

The census of the citizens of Janesville has been complete, by Mr. E. E. Bullock, who is about to issue the new city directory. In fact the book is in the hands of the printer. To make this work accurate has been Mr. Bullock's endeavor and to insure the fact that all residents of Janesville are recorded he asks that any one who have changed their residence or moved into the city since August 1, please mail him, care of the Gazette, their change of address. This is particular and should be attended to. Another fact he wishes understood is that the books must be ordered now and can not be bought after the publication is out. Only six hundred copies are to be printed and they are all ordered. Anyone else wanting one should order it at once.

TO MOTHERS

Mrs. J. H. Haskins, of Chicago, Ill., President Chicago Arcade Club, Addresses Comforting Words to Women Regarding Childbirth.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Mothers need not dread childbearing after they know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. While I loved children I dreaded the ordeal, for it left me weak and sick for months after, and at the time I thought death was a welcome relief; but before my last child was born a good neighbor advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I used that, together with your Pills and Sanative Wash for four months before the child's birth;—it brought me wonderful relief. I hardly had an ache or pain, and when the child was ten days old I left my bed strong in health. Every spring and fall I now take a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it keeps me in continual excellent health."

Mrs. J. H. Haskins, 3218 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill. — $5000 forfelt if above testimony is not genuine.

Care and careful counsel is what the expectant and would-be mother needs, and this counsel she can secure without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass.

JOHNSON OWNS
OHIO DELEGATES

COMMITTEE ALL BOW TO TOM

Plans to Do Some Lively Campaigning On a Platform Built by William Jennings Bryan and Containing Many of His Own Reform Ideas.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 3.—Tom Johnson is supreme in his party in Ohio. Lewis Bernard of Cincinnati, the chief lieutenant of John R. McLean, has thrown up the sponge and said his friends in the convention would make no fight on anything—Kansas City platform, Tom Johnson candidates or anything else.

The prelude to the surrender of Bernard was Johnson's capture of the Twelfth district delegation. Johnson went to the Castalia Club's famous fishing preserve in his automobile. When he arrived he found that the Twelfth district delegates were hatching up a McLean break.

Auto in the Game.
He lured them into a room with authority to order whatever refreshments were wanted and sent the fastest automobile money could command after Johnson. Indignation, pie and champagne unlimited filled the rooms where the delegates were. When Johnson arrived he talked to them nearly two hours. When the delegation was released it had completely forgotten McLean and the whole convention was Johnson's without question.

For Warm Campaign.
Mayor Johnson has planned to make the most interesting political fight Ohio has ever seen. His fighting ground will be a platform drawn by his friend William Jennings Bryan wherever it touches national issues. Kansas City's pronouncement, with so much of the "peerless leader" element as a Johnson presidential boom will stand, will be declared for. To this will be tacked Johnson's taxation reform doctrines. The trusts will be punched up and their paternity laid to the tariff.

All for Johnson.
No Ohio candidate for the presidency ever had more unanimity of sentiment in his favor among the delegates at a state convention than was shown for Mayor Johnson at the meetings by congressional districts for the election of officers and members of the committee. The committees or credentials, permanent organization and rules and order of business are almost unanimously with him for anything he wants.

Controls State Committee.
The Johnson men were opposed only in the selection of members of the committee on resolutions and members of new state central committee, and in some districts these contests were closer and more bitter than expected.

The Johnson men secured fourteen of the twenty-one state committee-men, with three contests pending, and a greater proportion of those on the committee on resolutions.

Wipes Out Opposition.
The Johnson men made no concessions. This caused the minorities on the two committees named at first to fight, but the fighting was soon over. When the roll of the committee on resolutions was called the members from the first, third and eleventh districts opposed the endorsement of Bryan and the Kansas City platform and other Johnson planks, but the Johnson platform finally carried without change, and will be so reported to the convention and adopted without any minority report or other obstruction.

GEN MILES POSTPONES TRIP

Pressure of Work in His Office Causes the Delay.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A change has been made in the plans of Lieut. Gen. Miles, as announced last week. It was expected originally that he would leave on his tour of inspection of the Philippines to-day and sail from San Francisco on the transport Thomas on the 16th. The pressure of work in his office at present is so great, however, that he finds he will not be able to leave Washington before Wednesday of next week.

DISCOVERS ANOTHER COMET

Prof. Perrine of Lick Locates Star of Ninth Magnitude.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 3.—Director W. W. Campbell of Lick observatory reports: "A comet was discovered by Prof. Perrine Monday morning in the constellation of Perseus. Its position was right ascension 3 hours and 18 minutes and declination 34 degrees and 39 minutes. It is moving northwest. It is of the ninth magnitude and is therefore not visible without a telescope."

No Hair for Czar.

London, Sept. 3.—Advices from St. Petersburg show the czar has been thwarted again in his hopes for an heir. The Zarina, whose accouchement had been expected, is ill, but her condition is not alarming.

Youngers Seek Pardon.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 3.—The state pardon board will, at its next meeting, again consider an application of the Younger boys for a full pardon, which will permit them to return to Missouri.

Newlands May Be Senator.

Renov, Nev., Sept. 3.—Congressman Francis G. Newlands, who is prominently mentioned for a United States senatorship in this state, was born in Natchez, Miss., Aug. 23, 1818. He was educated at Yale and at the Columbian Law school in Washington. He is a lawyer and is serving his fourth term in congress.

VERMONT VOTE
BADLY CUT UP

CLEMENT MAKES GREAT RUN

Boiling Republican Comes Within 3,050 of the Regular Party Nominee, Developing Strength in Unlooked-for Localities.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 3.—Vermont was turned politically upside down at the polls and the regular Republican candidate for governor was slated for first prize got only the poor honor of leading the field.

Perceval W. Clement, the boiling Republican, made a wonderful run and attracted enough support from the Republican and Democratic parties to prevent Gen. McCullough, the regular nominee, from getting a majority. The election, therefore, for governor and lieutenant governor is thrown into the legislature.

Regulars Win.
The regular Republican candidates for secretary, auditor and treasurer, which were endorsed by the Clement faction, are elected by majorities estimated to be 55,000 or more.

D. J. Foster, in the first congressional district, and Kirtland Haskins in the second district, both Republicans, are re-elected by slightly increased majorities.

Partial returns indicate a total vote in round numbers of 67,000, which is almost exactly what it was two years ago. The indicated vote from partial returns in round numbers is: McCullough, 31,000; Clement, 28,000; McGurtick, 6,000; Sherburne, 2,000.

This indicates a Republican loss of 35 per cent over two years ago, while the Democratic loss is 63 per cent.

Feather for Silent Voters.

It was the silent voter that tied up the state election. It had been expected that Clement would make a good run in sections of the state, but the returns show that he made a surprisingly good showing throughout the whole state. Where he was well known he ran the best, of course, but hardly a hamlet failed to swell his column and he literally swept the cities and large towns. Politicians are dumfounded and no one dares predict whether Clement will be able to win in the legislature.

Will Elect McCullough.

The house of representatives will consist of 116 Republicans, twenty-nine Democrats and twenty-five high-license and labor. The senate is overwhelmingly Republican. The Republican managers gave out an opinion that the Republican representatives elected will for the most part vote for Gen. McCullough, the regular Republican nominee, for governor, although they will vote for high license liquor law, with a referendum law attached. Gen. McCullough will have a majority of thirty-eight over all on joint ballot in the general ballot in the assembly, which assures his election.

FLAMES SWEEP BLOOMINGTON

Early Morning Blaze in the Public Square Causes $250,000 Loss.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 3.—Fire which broke out in the south side of the public square at 1 o'clock this morning raged for one and one-half hours and caused a loss of $250,000.

The four-story drug store of Ripley & Strickland is gutted, with a loss of $25,000. The dry goods store of A. Livingstone & Sons adjoining, where the fire originated, lost the entire stock, valued at $100,000.

MAY BECOME A LABOR UNION

Postoffice Clerks to Consider Joining With Federation.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 3.—The national convention of postoffice clerks went into executive session behind closed doors. The important questions to come before the convention probably will be taken up to-day. Among these are the question of affiliation with the American Federation of Labor and the subject of form of bills for the improvement of the condition of the service.

MRS. HELENA BLAU,

Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

TEN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

Mrs. Helena Blau.

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'woman's best friend' and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do nothing within reason to secure health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to undergo a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui is offered to her. There is no publicity to deter her. She can take Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it. Many physicians do recommend Wine of Cardui to their patients.

Why not get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
